I prefer manual muscle testing – but you have to find someone who is very skilled at performing it correctly, and that's hard to find. You can't just put a food on the tongue and crank on the arm to see if the muscle goes "weak." That is poor testing. But done correctly, I feel it is the best. Other than that use your symptoms as a guide through an elimination diet. The lab tests ...

I am currently reading (audible version) the Period Repair Manual book. I am a woman in my early 40's and have been off of birth control pills for about a year. I started at 21 years old for pregnancy protection and did a clinical trial so it would be free. I had always had a light version of "period acne" before this pill (Loestrin FE 1/20) but after about a year on it my acne turned ...
