By contrast I would suggest anyone going for a book entitled 'Before You Cast a Spell' is both cautious and interested in learning to understand magic. But aside from going over basic principles regarding spirituality and "inner work" that could be easily enough (and generally are) summed up in the introduction of any spellbook, there really isn't anything of substance here. If you ...

Before casting a spell, purify your body by taking a bath, clearing your mind, and dressing in robes or light clothing. Next, purify your space by cleaning the area you'll be working in and putting out some crystals or herbs that fit the type of magic you're trying to perform. Create a circle or altar to protect you from negative spirits, then invoke the divine and call out your incantation ...
